FRAUCKE

Pieter Bruwer is a general practitioner in Piketberg. Although he has no formal art training, he has exhibited in Cape Town, Bellville and Paarl. He mainly paints landscapes, but is also interested in figure and portrait paintings.

EDITOR'S COMMENT 101

GUEST EDITORIAL 102

What's new in paediatric trauma?

A B van As and A J W Millar

MAIN ARTICLES

Targeted treatment of severe head injury 104

Head injury is poorly classified for treatment and so its categorisation is not as useful as it could be to guide therapy.

A A Figaji

Full-body digital radiographic imaging of the injured child 108

Digital imaging offers many advantages over analogue radiography.

T S Douglas, R D Pitcher and A B van As

Modern management of paediatric burns 113

Burn injuries pose a major threat to children in South Africa and remain a devastating injury, because of the resulting severe emotional and physical scarring and long psycho-social implications.

S Cox and H Rode

Laparoscopy in abdominal trauma 119

The use of laparoscopy is well established in paediatric abdominal trauma.

A Numanoglu

Minor traumatic brain injuries - what is new? 122

Minor traumatic brain injuries have been the topic of an extensive body of literature in recent years.

D den Hollander, J A Coventry and M du Trevou

Conservative management of intra-abdominal injuries 127

South Africa has a particularly high volume of blunt trauma in paediatric injury.

J A Loveland
